Expectations of EYFS Framework

	Spoken Language	Handwriting	Writing- transcription	Writing Composition	Vocabulary, Grammar & Punctuation
EYFS ELG	ELG: Listening, Attention and Understanding Children at the expected level of development will: - Listen attentively and respond to what they hear with relevant questions, comments and actions when being read to and during whole class discussions and small group interactions. - Make comments about what they have heard and ask questions to clarify their understanding. - Hold conversation when engaged in back-and-forth exchanges with their teacher and peers. ELG: Speaking Children at the expected level of development will: - Participate in small group, class and one-to-one discussions, offering their own ideas, using recently introduced vocabulary; - Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate; - Express their ideas and feelings about their experiences using full sentences, including use of past, present and future tenses and making use of conjunctions, with modelling and support from their teacher.	 ELG: Fine Motor Skills Children at the expected level of development will: Hold a pencil effectively in preparation for fluent writing – using the tripod grip in almost all cases; Use a range of small tools, including scissors, paint brushes and cutlery; Begin to show accuracy and care when drawing. begin to form lower-case letters in the correct direction, starting and finishing in the right place (Kinetic Letters expectations - knowing the starting points and families) Shows a preference for a dominant hand. Begins to use anticlockwise movement and retrace vertical lines. Children show good control and co-ordination in large and small movements. They move confidently in a range of ways, safely negotiating space. 	 ELG: Writing Children at the expected level of development will: Write recognisable letters, most of which are correctly formed; Spell words by identifying sounds in them and representing the sounds with a letter or letters; Write simple phrases and sentences that can be read by others. Children use their phonic knowledge to write words in ways which match their spoken sounds. 	 Children at the expected level of development will: say out loud what they are going to write about recognise where spaces between words have been missed. write some common exception words write their own name and other simple things such as labels or captions They also write some irregular common words. They develop their own narratives and explanations by connecting (conjunctions such as: Once upon a time, then, so, and, but, next, in the end) ideas or events. Children re-read what they have written and discuss with the teacher or other pupils. 	Children at the expected level of development will: • write simple sentences demarcated with capital letters, finger spaces and full stops
